FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BIRMINGHAM, AL, Tuesday - January 15, 2008 - Building Owners and Managers Association of Birmingham (BOMA Birmingham) will induct its Officers for 2008 at a monthly association meeting being held on January 16th at Rucker Place.

"I consider it a great honor to serve as President of BOMA Birmingham in 2008. With a talented and dedicated Board of Directors serving our association, we look forward to another exciting year of monthly meetings, charity work and social outings." said BOMA Birmingham President Andy O'Dell, who will be inducted tomorrow. "As we move forward in 2008, our primary goal is to grow membership by providing the tools needed for personal and professional growth. We will continue our tradition of supporting both local and national advocacy efforts that benefit and sustain the commercial real estate industry." Outgoing President Eddie Nobinger, RPA, FMA, CFM did a phenomenal job as President and was instrumental in advancing BOMA's local efforts at the regional and national levels.

Elected last fall and serving a 1 year term, the officers that will be inducted tomorrow include President Andy O'Dell, CPM, CCIM, CMCA of Carter & Associates, President-Elect Diane Dameron of Barry Real Estate Companies, Vice President Kathy Huckabay, RPA of Colonial Properties Trust, Secretary Betty Swann, RPA of Cousins Properties, Treasurer & Association Executive Ronnie Blakney, RPA, Member at Large W. Van Horne of Alabama Power, and Allied Representatives Steve Brannum of Professional Management of Alabama and Tom Greene of Security Engineers, Inc.

BOMA Birmingham is comprised of approximately 100 local commercial real estate professionals and service providers that are directly involved or associated with the Birmingham commercial real estate market. BOMA Birmingham is one of the nearly 100 North American and 9 overseas affiliates of BOMA International. BOMA members own or manage over 9 billion square feet of downtown and suburban commercial properties and facilities in North America and abroad. BOMA actively and responsibly represents and promotes the interests of the commercial real estate industry through effective leadership and advocacy, through the collection, analysis, and dissemination of information, and through professional development.
